Commercial.

Mr. Marcellus reports the public and domestic very much in doubt as to the presidents not or "record which constitutes the "peace power," which so fearfully from his sensitive soul. If it be the purport of the Convention, we reply that it is our business to fully and fairly represent all parties.

If it be the publication of convention and caucus notices, we say that our business also includes an advertising department, and always has. If considerations of the Journal by a Republican committee says, is the offence for which the paper is to be held vicariously responsible, what has the Government to reply to, two well known and distinguished Democratic papers in advance of publication of the call, the Congressman Pope complimentary as follows?—

CHICAGO, Aug. 21. A special says that the negroes are falling like sheep, and the whites have no sympathy for them, as they have shown none for the whites.

CANTON, Miss., is depopulated, only 100 people being left out of a population of 3,000. All the smaller towns are suffering for the common necessaries of life, bacon selling at 20 cents a pound. The scare, however, is said to be over, and many people are returning to their homes to stay and fight off the fever.

An Atlanta dispatch says that no fever cases has occurred in Georgia yet, although a few cases, reach there from New Orleans which have yielded to treatment.

A Vicksburg dispatch says the fever is spreading there. Doctors Booth and Hunt are both prostrated. There are forty-six cases of congress and 11 new cases yesterday.

A Washington dispatch says that on the request of Surgeon Woodworth, Dr. Keyes of New Orleans, who was at Vicksburg, will remain. Surgeon Murray of Key West has left for New Orleans. Surgeon Magruder leaves Philadelphia for Key West, and Surgeon Robert White of Boston, goes to Philadelphia.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 22. To-day the new cases were nearly double the previous days. Total number for the twenty-four hours ending 6 o'clock to-night is 106, deaths for the same time 12.

"A Wormwood Era of Season."

NEW YORK, Aug. 20. A Grenada (Miss.) dispatch says the atmosphere there is so foul that boot rots in less than one hour on exposure to the air. One hundred and fifty people are now lying there in unearthly agony, and that which is needed to speak yesterday, which can be had for money: that is dead are not buried in graves, but in gardens, as the burial grounds in the city Company are now being used, in different wards and in many cases in front of the house to which they belong. Several corpses have been stripped with the disease. The whole place is a veritable pit of death.

Among the deaths Saturday were John T. Myers, a dry goods merchant, Wm. Harrison, agent Hannibal R. R. C. Bristol, proprietor of the Whitehall House, N. Y., and Mrs. Dr. Hamner, the seventh of a family within a year. Everybody is leaving Grenada, Miss., who can and long lines of ox wagons with furniture and families are seen. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 23. The U. S. ironclads Canonicus, Passaic and Katahdin, at the Navy Yard, are found, on inspection to be worthless, and have been recommended to be broken up. It is thought doubtful if anything can be done to the Omaha also here.

A Poor "Washington."

NEW YORK, Aug. 21. Thomas Connolly has returned from the argument, where he went to work for Cornell & Co. on the Missouri Railway. The usual committee of hard duty, etc., is told the time says that Cornell ordered the men to go to work and when the first man to refuse was to be shot, when a man named Mitchell stepped forward and said their food and all other things were not in accordance with the contract and he would not work. The foreman deliberately shot Mitchell dead, and then the workingmen, who were unarmed, moved on to the foreman, several employees, with Cornell, broke off supplies of food and fled. They were met by Gen. Ewell Thomas, Quartermaster of Philadelphia, encamped on a hill to Pure, where the American Consul ordered for them and sent them home.

WASHINGTON.

Southern Politics.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23. An interview with Senator Chandler is published in which he says he intends to decline a nomination for the Senate House on the ground that there is as much apathy on the part of the administration and Republicans to make it a race as the part of Democrats opposite. It is stated that Senator Chandler has also told his friends he will not be a candidate for re-election and presented personal appointments in the interest for Alabama.

The Post claims to have seen a letter from a prominent South Carolina Republican in which he says that Governor Chamberlain's course in vetoing the election bill has forced the Republicans to organize for the war to be conducted on full campaign and campaigning lines. He says they will have to depend upon the Northern Republicans for the prosecution.

I Would not be Without It.

CINCINNATI, April 9, 1877.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.—

Dear Sir—I have been afflicted with Bronchitis for several months, and have used a Vegetine, and it has effected a perfect cure. I am constantly recommending it to others.

GEO. E. TILLEY,

269 W. 5th Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. Tilley is a gentleman of intelligence and integrity, and well known in Cincinnati.

Vegetine has never failed to effect a cure. Giving tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

An Invaluable Medicine.

WORCESTER, Mass., Jan. 1, 1877.

This is to certify that your Vegetine has cured me of Bronchitis, and I would recommend it as an invaluable medicine for Colds, Coughs, and the inflammations that follow them upon the throat and lungs.

Yours, very respectfully,

JOHN H. ULLMAN.

Vegetine does not, as a rule, attempt to indulge in the hyperbole, but assumes all the honest, commanding ground to postpone the Testimonials already upon them.

Without a Rival.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 10, 1877.

Mr. H. R. Stevens—Dear Sir: I have taken your Vegetine, and I am free to say that it is the best medicine I ever took for the blood. It has relieved me of Rheumatism, which I have had for years, and I am now in better health than I have been for years. I shall always recommend it to my friends as the best blood purifier in the world.

Very respectfully yours,

C. F. TYLER,

Boston, Mass.
